

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

BANKING ON HEALTH END-OF-PROJECT CONFERENCE

Thursday, September 10, 2009

1:00 – 4:00 PM

National Press Club

First Amendment Lounge (13th Floor)

529 14th Street NW, Washington DC, 20045 (Metro Center)

(202) 662-7587

RSVP to Andrew Carmona (acarmona@banyanglobal.com).

Space is limited.

Registration starts at 12:30.

DRAFT AGENDA

Over the past five years, Banking on Health has worked in 12 countries to expand access to financing for private health care businesses, improving their capacity to deliver high-quality reproductive health and family planning services.

- | | |
|------------|--|
| 12:30-1:00 | Registration |
| 1:00-1:15 | Opening remarks , USAID, TBD |
| 1:15-1:35 | Overview of the project and key results , Meaghan Smith, Project Director |
| 1:35-2:20 | Uganda country panel <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Taara Chandani, Banking on Health Uganda Country Program Manager• Dr. Benon Mugerwa, Owner of Mayanja Memorial Hospital and Nursing Training Institute, Uganda• Wilson Twamuhabwa, General Manager of Business Growth and Development, Equity Bank, Uganda |
| 2:20- 2:35 | Coffee break |
| 2:35-2:50 | The Development Credit Authority and the health sector , Anthony Vaganos, Office of Development Credit, USAID |
| 2:50-3:35 | Romania country panel <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Lisa Tarantino, Deputy Director and Romania Country Program Manager• Fady Chrieh, Head of Healthcare Division, Banca Transilvania, Romania• Dr. Violeta Cindea, Society for Education on Contraception and Sexuality (SECS), Romania |
| 3:35-3:50 | Zambia: growing a private health sector
Kim McKeon, Banking on Health Zambia Country Program Manager
Zambia video |
| 3:50-4:00 | Wrap-up and closing remarks , Meaghan Smith, Project Director |